

PRECATORY DECLARATION

This is a written precatory declaration of my desire as to the distribution of certain items of personal property, namely my sewing supplies, accessories, and equipment, including sewing machines and fabric inventory. If it is determined that this has no legal affect, it is my hope that those entitled to my estate will nevertheless respect it.

My desire is that my inventory of sewing supplies, accessories, and equipment, including sewing machines and fabric, be donated to the following charitable organization:

SEW LOVED, INC.

(or its successor in interest)

Mailing address: 1320 De Luna Way

South Bend, IN, 46614

574-329-2639

EIN# 47-1843452

(see website for updated contact information, if necessary)

If the charitable organization named above no longer exists and has no identifiable successor in interest, it is my desire is that one or more charitable organizations with similar charitable purposes receive my sewing supplies, accessories, and equipment, including machines and fabric.

I hope that those entitled to my estate will agree as to the distribution of such items. If they cannot, it is my suggestion, that each select (the order of choice to be determined by lot) the sewing-related items he or she desires and the remainder donated to the organization named above.
